

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT: Credentialed Deaf/Hard of Hearing Toddler Teacher

The Center for Early Intervention on Deafness (CEID) is pleased to announce an opening in our Toddler Classroom serving students 18-months to 3 years of age. In this class our students and families work with a credentialed teacher of the deaf to expand language, foster literacy, and develop skills in all areas including motor and social skills. CEID maximizes communication potential through early education, family support and community audiology services. For more agency information please visit our website www.ceid.org

JOB DESCRIPTION and RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Toddler Teacher will teach four mornings a week, will conduct home visits and will provide itinerant D/HH services as needed for other agency programs. The Toddler teacher provides information and support to parents on a regular basis; offers individual home visit sessions to the toddler families; supervises staff and volunteers; attends weekly staff meetings; participates in staff consultations with mental health and medical experts; assesses students and prepares progress reports in conjunction with Individual Family Service Plan meetings; works cooperatively as a team member, and maintains a caseload up to 12 families. The Teacher is also responsible for creating daily curriculum in alignment with individual student needs, developmental standards and best practices.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS and ABILITIES

Required

- California Teacher's Credential: Deaf & Hard of Hearing Education Specialist
- Significant experience working collaboratively with diverse populations and in supporting cultural competency
- Direct and clear communication skills appropriate for varying situations and audiences
- Ability to provide guidance to and partner with parents
- Ability to use spoken and sign language simultaneously
- Excellent analytical and organizational skills
- Ability to drive to home visits
- Ability to lift small our students and monitor positioning and special needs of child

Desirable

- Prefer a minimum of 3 years teaching experience in Deaf Education
- Master's Degree in Deaf Education or Early Childhood with training in the areas of early childhood development, parent counseling, multiple special needs, hearing aid use, cochlear implants, audiology and adaptive equipment
- Experience with deaf culture and history of deaf education
- Knowledge of adaptive equipment and community resources for students with multiple special needs
- Spanish language fluency

SALARY AND BENEFITS

Salary based on qualifications and experience. Full benefits package available.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants should send their resume and a cover letter describing their qualifications and their interest in the position to CEID via email to jstewart@ceid.org

CEID is an Equal Opportunity Employer